

March 20, 2020

Dear Artists,

It is that time of year when we start emailing to let you know the Call to Artists for the Crocker Holiday Artisan Market is opening April 1, 2020. Well, April Fool's Day is on point, as our Call to Artists will not open April 1, 2020.

While we have been hard at work preparing for this year's Crocker Holiday Artisan Market, the world stepped in and said not so fast. Based on the rapidly changing situation due to the Coronavirus, we are taking a pause during the month of April and delaying the opening of the Call to Artists to May 1st.

This will be our fifteenth year putting on the show and we certainly want it to go on; however, the safety of our community is our first priority. We will continue to monitor the situation and let you know our plans as the things become clearer.

This is a challenge to all Americans and it is heartening to see communities pulling together. We hope this message finds you and your family healthy.

We will be in touch in late April to let you know if we feel its ok to post the Call to Artists on May 1st.

Take care and stay safe,

Crocker Holiday Artisan Market,
